~~Barney~~ Barney

Have you ever wondered what you like when you were younger? Has what you like when you were younger change to compare what you like now? Well, I want to chose barney. Everyone has had like barney before. When I was younger I use to watch barney all the time, but now I don't like barney. Do you know why you don't like it anymore? When younger you ~~thought~~ thought barney was real, but when you get older you understand much more. So now you know barney is not real.

I am much older now. So I do know that barney is not real. I am not saying I did not learn anything from watching barney, because I did learn a lot. What have I really learn from watching barney? Well, I am glad you ask. I learn how to get along with others, I also learn how to clean up, sing songs, dance, and imagine make believe things. You can learn so much when you watch barney.

When your older the little tv shows that use to watch when you were younger change. Like what do you watch now to compare when you were younger? Well, since I am a teenager I watch things like MTV, cinsey, cartoon network, abc, fox famliy but, when I was younger I watch barney, aruthus, semstreet. Well, as you can tell I like to watch cartoons and what little kids watch. Even though I am a teenager people always say you can't be a kid forever but that is ture then it can be false. You are wondering why ~~is~~ is it fake? You made get older but you can still act like a kid once in awhile. I am the only kid out of all my ~~friends~~ friends who still watch cartons. My friends always ask me why do I like to watch cartoons? You know what I tell them? I say I like them and you can still learn from them no matter how old you are. You can always learn more.

Well, I think it is about time to recap on everything I have told you. Barney is not real and little kids can learn from it and it is good for them. Even when you watch what you use to or watch cartoons you can still learn from them. So never let anyone tell you that you're too old to watch cartoons or anything else. You will always learn from what you watch. Even when you get older you don't have to act like a grown-up all the time you can still act like a kid sometimes. So act like a kid when you want, but just remember you don't have to be serious all the time. It was nice talking to you and thanks for reading my story and your time.

THE END
